CABRINI COLLEGE

Short-Term Study Abroad Application
ECG 200 / ECG 300 Course in Guatemala

Students applying to Cabrini's short-term study abroad in Guatemala must complete this form and also submit an application essay. Incomplete applications will not be accepted.

Please submit this form and your essay to Dr. Raquel Green (Founder's 369) or Dr. Jerry Zurek (Founder's 272) by Nov. 1, 2012.

Please print or type neatly and legibly.

Name _____

Home Address _____

_____

Home Phone _____ Cell Phone _____

E-mail _____

Date of Birth _____ High school _____

Major at Cabrini _____

Current GPA _____ Anticipated Graduation Date _____

Do you have a passport? ❑ Yes ❑ No

Do you anticipate any difficulties making the payments for the trip? ❑ Yes ❑ No
If yes, please discuss this with Dr. Green or Dr. Zurek.

Have you attended an information session about the trip? ❑ Yes ❑ No
If not, please make an appointment to do so.

Have you ever been on academic probation or determined to have engaged in behavior that violated the College's Community Standards for Student Behavior? ❑ Yes ❑ No

Application Essay

Students applying to Cabrini's short-term study abroad in Guatemala must submit an essay of at least 300 words, covering the following topics.

1. Reasons for your interest in this course/trip and why you feel that you should be selected for participation in the course

2. Any previous international experience during high school or college
   Please describe situations in which you participated in cross-cultural situations and adapted to respect other cultures.

3. Situations when you had to work hard for extended periods of time without complaining

4. Your energy level and openness to an intense reflective experience
   After a full workday, participants will spend additional time learning and reflecting about that day's experiences and in discussion with other volunteers about values and customs.

Payments Due: Nov. 21: $600 Dec. 15: $600
Please make checks payable to Cabrini College and deliver to Dr. Green or Dr. Zurek.

For more information, visit www.cabrini.edu/StudyAbroad.