I understand that this application permits me to take two graduate courses (six credits) as a non-degree or visiting part-time graduate student at Cabrini College. I understand that if I choose to apply for a degree or certification program at a later date I am not guaranteed admission nor are the courses taken at Cabrini guaranteed to transfer into a program to which I will apply. I attest that I have graduated in good standing with a bachelor degree from an accredited institution and recognize that falsification of information on this application will be grounds for dismissal from the College. I also understand that to qualify as a professional enrichment student who can take unlimited credits, I must supply a copy of my state certification form.
