Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Academic Plan

Completion of this academic plan form is required once your Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) appeal has been approved to reinstate federal financial aid funds for 2023–2043. The plan MUST be completed with your academic advisor and submitted to Cabrini’s office of Financial Aid by September 2023.

The student below has been placed on Financial Aid Probation for the 2023-2024 academic year. They have applied for and been approved under a Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal by the office of Financial Aid for the 2023-2024 academic year. Federal regulations require an academic plan for future academic success to be created by the student and their Academic Advisor. This plan should include mapping future courses, projected grades/GPA, and outreach to the many support areas on campus to promote better study habits.
