

LEARN

GRAPHIC DESIGN AT CABRINI

When you major in Graphic Design at Cabrini, you will develop a personal artistic vision while gaining valuable insight and experience that will make you well prepared for the competitive graphic design workplace.

You will learn about and work in print and web and strengthen your ability to translate ideas into visual concepts.

By the time you graduate, you will have a comprehensive graphic design portfolio that demonstrates your skillset to potential employers.

INTERNSHIP AND CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Graphic Design majors can find internships and careers in:

- Advertising design
- Branding and identity design
- Exhibition and display design
- Package design
- Publication design
- User interface design
- Wayfinding and signage
- Web design

AFFILIATED ORGANIZATION

- AIGA (the professional association for design)

GRAPHIC DESIGN CURRICULUM

- GRA 105 Computer Graphics
- GRA 110 Digital Imaging
- GRA 215 Typography
- GRA 225 User Interface Design
- GRA 250 Design Career Development
- GRA 253 Computer Publication Design
- GRA 275 Web Design I
- GRA 305 Digital Color Theory
- GRA 312 Web Design II
- GRA 318 Graphic Design I
- GRA 319 Graphic Design II
- GRA 325 Web Design III
- GRA 405 Web Design IV
- GRA 408 Graphic Design III
- GRA 450 Design Internship
- GRA 409 Graphic Design IV
- GRA 475 Portfolio

Related Field Requirements

- FNA 100 Introduction to Studio Art
- FNA 105 Drawing Techniques
- FNA 202 Survey of Art History
- FNA 220 History of Graphic Design

DEPARTMENT CHAIR

Jeanne Komp

EXPLORE MORE

cabrini.edu/graphicdesign

CONTACT US

Admissions Office
admit@cabrini.edu
800.848.1003
610.902.8552

CABRINI
UNIVERSITY